Asian American & Pacific Islander HERITAGE MONTH

#AAPIHeritageMonth

Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) Heritage Month, observed in the United States during May, celebrates the contributions, culture, history, and achievements of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders in the country. To raise awareness in your library and on campus, we've thoughtfully organized shelves in four ways:

Looking for a particular subject matter for your students? Contact your rep for recommendations!

When looking to promote a particularly pertinent collection, look no further than our monthly toolkit additions on the Digital Marketing Resources Page. Be sure to look for upcoming thematic collections.

To help you talk to faculty, staff, and students about our AAPI collection, we've put together this customizable toolkit. Start campus-wide conversations around what AAPI means at your university.

Download this month's promotional assets to support conversation!

How to promote AAPI Heritage Month with this toolkit:

✓ General Announcements

These are perfect for displaying in student unions, on campus digital signage, and in the library. Images are sized for promotion in various social media platforms (specifically Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram), as well as print and screen images.

✓ Title-Specific Assets

Share our monthly featured film on social media or in your digital spaces throughout campus

✓ Suggested Social Media Copy

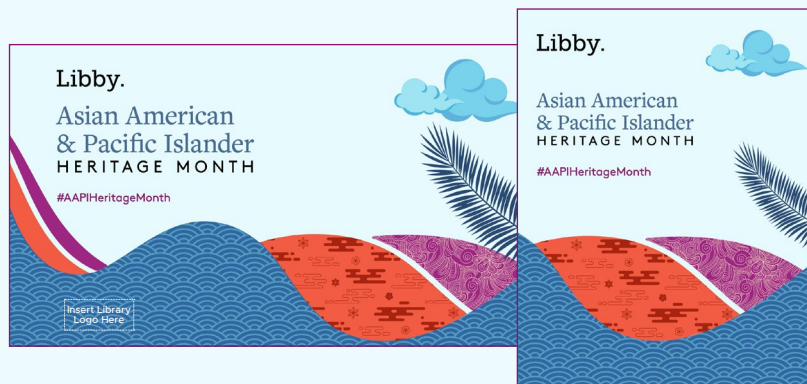

Two options that you can copy and paste into your messaging across social media platforms and email.

General Announcement & Title-Specific Assets

To download the general announcements for our the Arab American Heritage Month, visit our Digital Marketing Resources Page.

And remember, you can always add your logo to any of these images to remind your faculty and staff that they can access Kanopy through your digital offerings.
