Libby.

The library reading app.

Libby-The Leading Digital Reading App for Academic Communities.

Give students and faculty access to ebooks, audiobooks, and magazines in one easy-to-use app—accessible anytime, anywhere.

Why Libby?

Flexible Lending Models for Every Budget:

OverDrive works with publishers to offer titles in a variety of lending models so our academic partners can quickly satisfy demand and work to build a lasting collection.

Some popular lending models include:

- OverDrive Max: Perfect for classes-up to 100 checkouts at once.
- One Copy/One User: Perpetual or metered access.
- Subscription: No holds, no wait lists.
- Cost Per Circ Model: Pay only for what's borrowed.
- Open Access: Free publicly funded or public research—great for students and staff to discover and collaborate.

Plus, partners now have greater visibility and can see all the possible lending models & pricing in one location in Marketplace. This means partners can make more informed decisions about what's best for their budget.

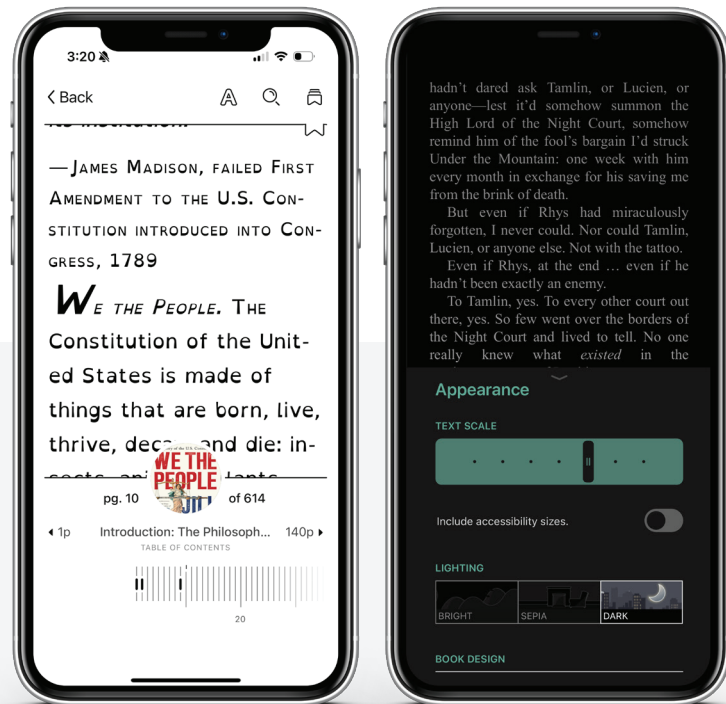

Easy Integration:

Libby now integrates with Ex Libris Alma and Primo, making discovery seamless for students and faculty.

Accessibility:

Fully ADA-compliant with features like:

- Adjustable playback speed for audiobooks
- Adjustable text sizes and font options (including Open Dyslexic)
- High contrast mode
- Screen-reader support
- Keyboard navigation

Customizable Platform:

Brand Libby with your institution's name and curated collections. Promote campus events, book clubs, and more with self-serve Libby Campaigns in Marketplace.

Ready to empower your academic community?

Join a consortium or sign up as an individual college/university today. As a bonus, every new Libby platform receives $500 Kanopy credit.

Kanopy: Essential Films to Enhance Instruction.

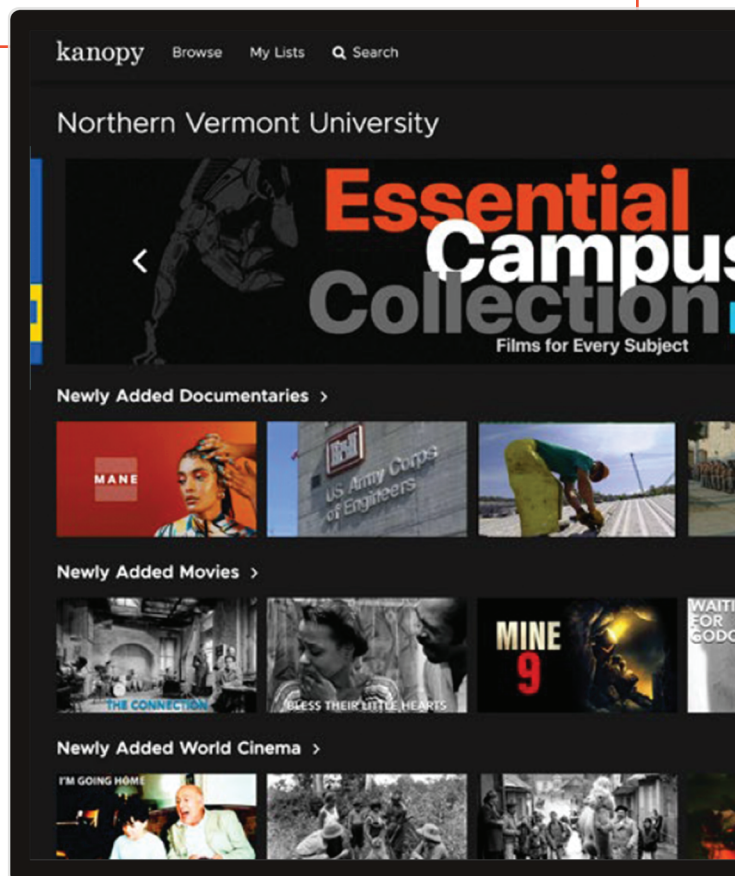

Meet your campus community where they are by providing access to essential films.

Why Kanopy?

Flexible Lending Models:

Kanopy allows libraries to customize their approach balancing academic needs & cost control.

- Patron-Driven Acquisition: Pay only when videos are watched. Available in Open and Smart PDA options, where you will be assigned by a Content Workflow Analyst (CWA), who will assist in curating titles while maintaining your established budget.
- Kanopy BASE: Thousands of titles with minimal librarian upkeep.

- New! Criterion Collection Titles—28 films that feature compelling plots, characters, and filmmaking techniques make these indispensable for film studies and interdisciplinary scholarship.
- One-and Three-Year Licenses: Available for all Kanopy titles, offers unlimited simultaneous access.
- Firm Order Packages: Curated for high-use subjects like Film, Art, Media Studies, and DEI—renewable each year with no commitment.
- Perpetual Access Licenses: Outright ownership of titles, which is available through many popular suppliers.

Easy Integration

Ex Libris Integration:

Libraries can now seamlessly add Kanopy's catalog to their systems via Ex Libris using the Patron-Driven Acquisition (PDA) model in nine global regions. To enable this, libraries simply activate the PDA collection for their region in Alma's Community Zone, ensuring accurate content alignment and streamlined workflows.

Library of Congress Subject Headings:

We're adding Library of Congress subject headings to metadata tags to improve discoverability in MARC records.

Accessibility:

Kanopy strives to be accessible for all users with features like screen-reader support, keyboard navigation, and voice control settings.

Public Performance Rights:

- Classroom Use: Any film on Kanopy's academic platform can be shown by professors or instructors.
- Public Events: Films with Public Performance Rights (PPR) are marked with the PPR icon on the title details page.

Use the PPU Available filter to find PPR titles—perfect for student center or dorm movie nights!

The Great Courses Select-Kanopy Exclusive
