

Ground News: Now available as a Libby Extra

Empower readers to think critically, spot bias, and balance their news diet

Providing access to over 50,000 news sources, Ground News is an online resource patrons can use to compare headlines across the political spectrum and spot media bias using ratings driven by data. Every day, Ground News processes 60,000 news articles from different outlets covering the same events, making it possible to get perspective in one place. The Ground News rating system adds context and transparency to every news story. Your community can conveniently identify media bias, check source credibility and view ownership data all in one place.

Ground News content is accessed through the Libby app, alongside the ebooks, audiobooks and magazines you currently offer. Add Ground News today to engage your community and introduce new users to all the digital services your library offers. Plus, coming soon, we are offering direct links, customized webpages for your library that allow you to feature each Libby Extra service individually.
