

Class Sets for required reading

Fast, affordable and easy: Get every student copies of the books they need

Give every student access to the required reading they need with On-Demand Class Sets. This short-term ebook rental option is perfect for delivering classroom books to as many students as needed, no matter where they are.

WHY CHOOSE ON-DEMAND CLASS SETS IN SORA?

Flexible

Reading isn't limited to what your school owns in print.

Fast

Get books to students within 24 hours (or less).

Convenient

Digital books are simple to distribute, accessible on any device and never take up shelf space.

Cost-effective

Titles start at $0.99 per student and cannot be lost or damaged.

Measurable

Authorized educators can use school- or student-level reading data to measure how titles are being used in real-time.

HOW THEY WORK:

- You can purchase On-Demand Class Sets in OverDrive Marketplace (Sora's shopping and administrative portal), even before you know exactly who will need the book or when.
- Students borrow titles in Sora as needed, no assigning required (tip: reserve and bundle titles so that students can't check them out before you want them to).
- Students have access for 90 days after the date they borrow the book and can download titles to read offline.
- Students cannot return these titles early.

WHAT THEY'RE GREAT FOR:

- Required and choice classroom reading
- Small and large book clubs
- Required all-school or all-grade reads
- Providing titles as-needed to specific students or groups of students

“On-Demand (Digital) Class Set rentals significantly increase our capacity to be responsive to district-wide curriculum needs. They're a smart, responsible use of our curriculum budget dollars. In short, they're a game-changer!”
- Suzi Tonini,
Denver Public Schools (CO)

MEET YOUR LEARNING GOALS

Does your district use high-quality instructional materials from an outside provider? If so, On-Demand Class Sets are a great way to support your classroom objectives — and your Sora team is here to help you match our catalog to your reading lists! Not sure where to start? Not to worry! Our in-house librarians can provide all the help you need with title selection.

Plus, ask your account team about bundled price-per-grade/per-student pricing options.

We supply required digital books for these providers - and more.
