Programming Ideas

- Host a weekly screening featuring one title from the collection, followed by a facilitated discussion about representation, identity, and access. Check the film for Public Performance Rights (PPR).
- Pair films with themes like race, gender, or LGBTQ+ identity and explore how disability intersects with other lived experiences.
- Program a short event or guide about captions, audio description, and inclusive design in media, using films from the collection as examples.
- Curate a small set of films, from the collection, centered on resilience and self-advocacy, with a short intro explaining why these stories matter.
