

Disability Pride Month

Social Media Copy

Version 1

Celebrate Disability Pride Month by reading or listening to stories that elevate, empower, and reflect bodies and minds of all kinds. Browse and borrow our curated collection of ebooks and audiobooks for free in the Libby app.

Version 2

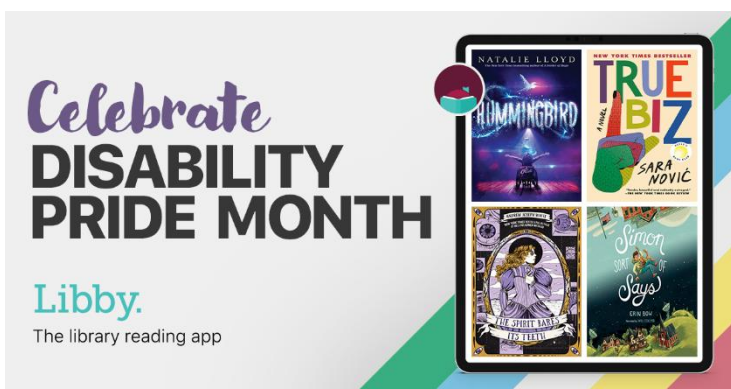

Powerful stories made accessible. This Disability Pride Month, explore settings in the Libby app designed to support the way you read and listen. Learn more: help.libbyapp.com/en-us/categories/accessibility.htm

Descriptive Image Text

When posting on social media sites like Instagram, Facebook, and Threads, you can embed descriptive image text (also known as alt text) to support people with visual impairments. Use the text below to add descriptive image text to your social media posts.

Large purple and black text reads, “Celebrate Disability Pride Month” over a white background. Below the text is a tablet displaying the jacket cover of Hummingbird by Natalie Lloyd over red, yellow, white, blue, and green stripes. The Libby logo is positioned on the right edge of the tablet. To the right of the tablet is a smaller phone displaying the jacket cover of Scattered Minds by Gabor Mate, MD. In the bottom right corner are the Libby watermark in teal and the tagline, “The library reading app.”

Large purple and black text reads, “Celebrate Disability Pride Month” over a white background. Below the text in the bottom left corner are the Libby watermark in teal and the tagline, “The library reading app.” On the right, a tablet displaying the jacket covers of Hummingbird by Natalie Lloyd, True Biz by Sara

Novic, The Spirit Bares its Teeth by Andrew Joseph White, and Simon Sort of Says by Erin Bow is positioned over red, yellow, white, blue, and green stripes. The Libby logo is positioned on the left edge of the tablet.