Success with SORA
Digital eBooks
Presented by Lesley Nickelson

Welcome! We will be getting started right at 10am.

In the meantime, here are some tips to get the most out of tonight's information session:

1. This is a 'Zoom Webinar,' and differs from a typical Zoom meeting.
2. Participants will be able to see and hear the host(s), yet their microphone and camera will not be viewable to the host nor audience.
3. There will be a virtual Q&A. Questions may be answered throughout the presentation or answered privately after the session.
4. This session is being recording for future public viewing.
5. This presentation and accompanying materials will be posted on the Advanced Academics webpage.
