Programming Ideas

- Host a screening of a Jewish Heritage Month film, followed by a discussion on cultural history, personal stories, or contemporary issues in the Jewish community. Filter the collection by Public Performance Rights, which allow for public screening events.
- Invite a local chef or community member to demonstrate a traditional Jewish dish, then screen a related film that highlights Jewish culture, traditions, or holidays.
- Feature the films alongside books on Jewish history, literature, and culture. Include staff picks, discussion prompts, and posters from this marketing kit to promote the collection.
