The screenshot displays a digital reading interface for a children's eBook. The main content area features two pages of text and illustrations. The top page shows a dragon's head with smoke coming from its ears, accompanied by the text: "Why do dragons hate spicy salsa? Well, just one drop of hot sauce makes a dragon's ears smoke." The bottom page shows a dragon's head with a cloud of colorful stars coming from its mouth, with the text: "Just one single speck of hot pepper makes a dragon snort sparks. Spicy salsa gives dragons the tummy troubles, and when dragons get the tummy troubles—oh boy..." To the right of the text are illustrations of various toppings: tomatoes, lettuce, and cheese, each with a yellow checkmark. A text overlay reads: "If you want to make tacos for dragons, keep the toppings mild." and "these are all good toppings for tacos for dragons." A blue circle highlights a "START NARRATION" button. In the top right corner, there are icons for zooming in/out, a bookmark, a search icon, and a menu icon. A "Narration" overlay is visible in the bottom right corner, featuring a microphone icon, the text "Start narration", and a speed control slider set to "1x".
