Lesson One - Chapter 1

Choose one (1) and respond, 200 word minimum.

1. One of the core beliefs of Discipline with Dignity (DWD) is "School is for all students, not just the good ones." What are some ways that teaching behaviorally difficult students can make us better teachers?
2. Does your current discipline plan align with DWD's core beliefs? Can you add any others? Which core belief is most important to you? How do you express that belief when you interact with students?
3. Which DWD principles are easiest for you to apply in your classroom? Which are the most difficult? How might you overcome any obstacles that are in the way?

Use the Rubric to review your work! You must score 16 points or higher on all activities to complete the course.

Lesson Two - Chapter 2

Choose one (1) and respond, 200 word minimum.

1. What are some key out-of-school causes of discipline problems that educators cannot control but need to understand? Are there other out-of-school causes that you contend with?
2. What are some things teachers and administrators do that can actually lead to discipline problems?

Use the Rubric to review your work! You must score 16 points or higher on all activities to complete the course.
