

Libby Magazines for Academic Libraries

Transform learning and engagement with an affordable digital magazine collection

Give your campus community unlimited, simultaneous access to thousands of current, high interest magazines spanning science, business, current events, health, arts & culture, and more! All magazines are discoverable and readable right in Libby.

What's Included

- 5,000+ popular titles from top publishers, including Newsweek, New Scientist, National Geographic, US Weekly, and Bon Appétit.
- Simultaneous-use model — no holds, no waitlists, no circulation caps.
- Annual subscription includes full catalog access, with many titles offering back-issue archives.

How It Works in Libby

- Instant access: Open a magazine and start reading.
- Subscribe to favorite titles: new issues are automatically added to a user's shelf.
- Organized browsing through Libby's Magazine Rack and Newsstand.

Academic Value

- Equitable access: Every student can read the same article at the same time, ideal for seminars, assigned readings, and group learning.
- Current, real-world content that supports coursework.
- Supports research: Specialized publications deepen exploration for projects and assignments.
- Promotes student wellbeing: Recreational reading helps reduce stress and encourage lifelong reading habits.
- Instruction-ready: Faculty can integrate articles into case studies, discussions, and writing courses.

Ready to get started? Contact your Account Manager today.

Arts, Culture & Humanities

Business, Economics & Entrepreneurship

Culinary, Lifestyle & Hospitality

Current Events, Politics & Society

Health, Wellness & Psychology

Science & Environment

