Dear readers,

I'm so excited that Montgomery Bonbon: Mystery at the Manor is joining the Together We Read book club. The book is about Bonnie Montgomery, a ten year old girl who puts on a false moustache and becomes the mysterious detective Montgomery Bonbon. Can Bonnie solve an impossible murder and protect her secret identity? Well, I'm not going to tell you. You'll have to read the book.

What I like about mystery stories is that they're kind of interactive. Kids and adults can play along together as they read, spotting clues. And, hopefully, laughing at some of my jokes.

And as part of the Together We Read book club, the ebook and audiobook are free for two weeks. The ebook is brilliantly illustrated by Claire Powell and the audiobook has me doing what I would call interesting accents!

Happy reading!

Alasdair Beckett-King

Bonnie Montgomery (as her case-cracking alter-ego Montgomery Bonbon) has been tasked with delivering a priceless diamond to Adderstone Manor, the home of retired master thief Fergus Croke. The plot thickens faster than a good roux when Croke is found dead hours later, and every one of his four protégés is suspected of the dirty deed. But when everyone is a crook, how does even the great Bonbon know where to begin?
