Marketing Support

We help you get the word out about your digital collection with print material, web and social graphics and more.

Product Training

OverDrive provides continuous training opportunities to help you better understand your collection and develop the know-how to help your faculty and students, too.

Collection Development

Our in-house librarians save you much needed time by creating recommended lists and collections for your library and can curate any specific requests.

Essential films proven to enhance learning for students

Most students today have experienced streaming video as an integral part of their upbringing and educational development. Meet students where they are by providing exciting opportunities for knowledge retention with access to essential films. In the evolving academic landscape, faculty, staff, and students expect wider availability of video to complement the educational process.

Combined with OverDrive Academic, your library can be at the forefront of contemporary education by offering the digital media students crave across the subjects faculty need.
