

Introducing All Access Comics in Sora

Always-available titles from Disney, Marvel, Dark Horse, Image Comics, IDW and more

Add some POW! to your school's digital collection with the All Access Comics package, accessible through the Sora reading app. This package is a great one-stop shop for digital comics, offering top titles for students of all ages to support differentiated learning and entice your striving readers.

What makes our All Access Comics package a superhero-sized steal?

- Popular titles that students will love: Premium digital titles* from top publishers, including Marvel titles not currently available in any other simultaneous-use digital model for schools.
- No holds or waitlists: All titles are simultaneous-use — so there's no limit to how many students can borrow them at once.
- One easy-to-use platform: No matter what your students are reading, Sora offers the same streamlined user experience. (And educators can access the same valuable reading data!)
- Reviewed by real librarians: Each title is reviewed by our trusted school librarians to ensure age-relevancy, saving your staff time and energy. Schools can also set unique content access levels for titles.
- Affordable — simply bundle & save: One simple solution — at one annual price! — makes the All Access Comics package a SLAM! dunk deal for schools and districts of all sizes.

*Please note: Content availability worldwide may vary by geographic rights. Titles are subject to change at the discretion of the publisher.
