Built for every role in education.

Sora supports literacy growth at every level — from the district, to the classroom, to the student experience.

ADMINISTRATORS CAN...

- Boost literacy outcomes through active learning and engagement, helping their schools raise achievement and build lasting reading habits.
- Maximize and scale resources with simple logistics and real-time usage data, so they can optimize budgets and expand access without added burden.
- Ensure equitable access to texts across a school or district, guaranteeing that every student can succeed with the same high-quality content.

EDUCATORS CAN...

- Assign books & track reading growth, so they can see real progress, spot who needs support, and intervene with confidence.
- Personalize instruction with learning and accessibility tools, that meet every reader—from emerging to advanced—while supporting access, engagement, and comprehension.
- Support diverse language and learning requirements, ensuring students can engage meaningfully with texts regardless of background or ability.

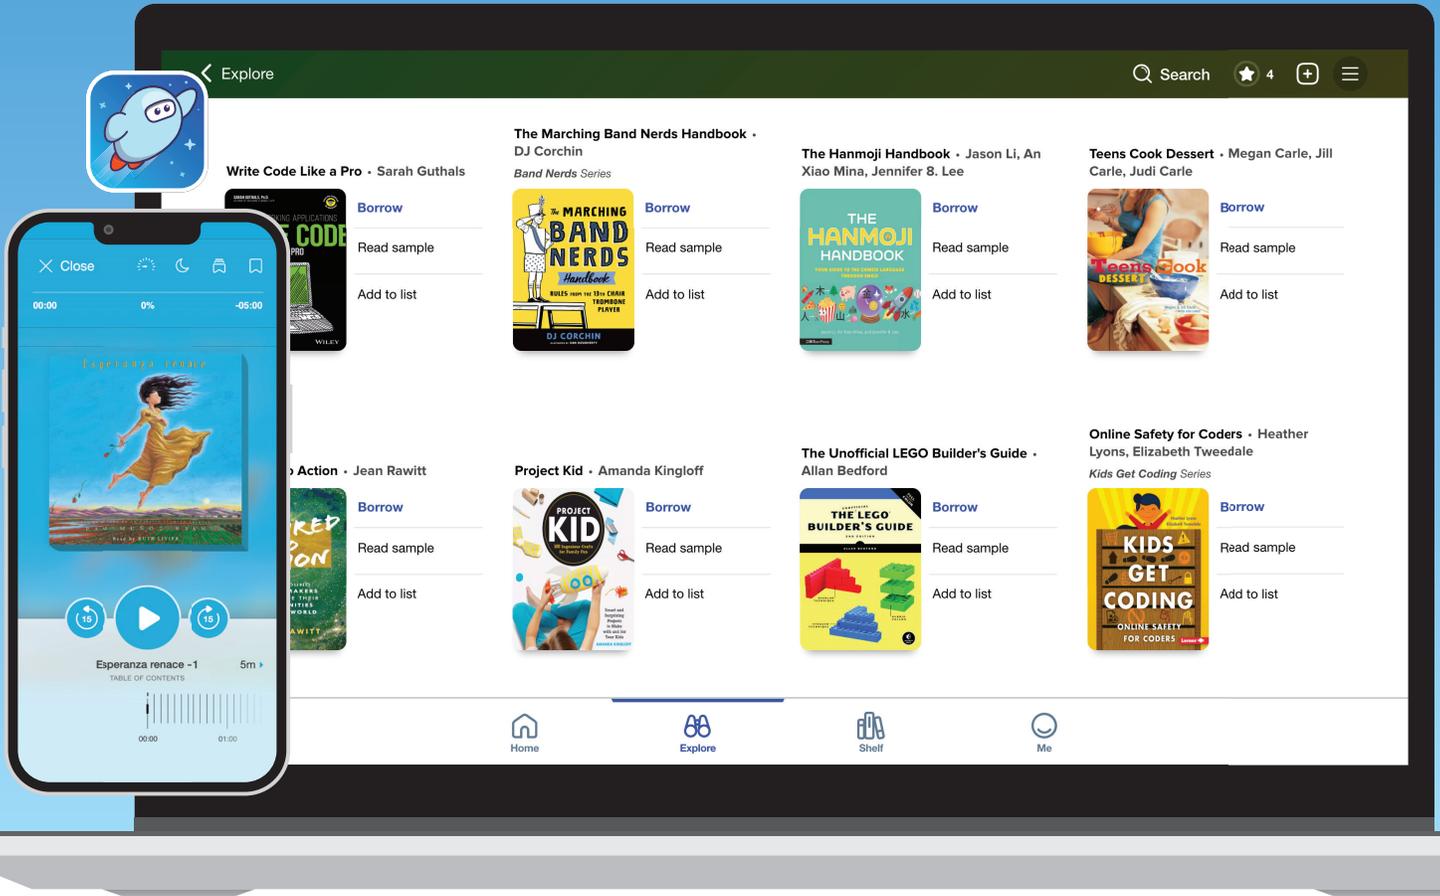

STUDENTS CAN...

- Read anywhere, on any device, giving them the freedom to stay engaged with reading, in school or on the go.
- Earn badges, track goals, and celebrate progress, helping them build confidence and motivation as they grow.
- Find the formats that meet their needs, empowering them to choose how they learn best and develop lifelong reading habits.

REAL IMPACT IN REAL CLASSROOMS:

I love the ease of access to the books, and the wide range of ebooks, audiobooks and magazines available to our students. I also appreciate that our English Language Learners can access many books in their first languages.

– Claudia P., School Library Teacher, Massachusetts
