Programming Ideas

- Host a “Watch and Discuss” recurring series where patrons watch an episode and gather to discuss themes, characters, and storytelling. Patrons watch an assigned episode at home via their Kanopy account, then attend an in-library or virtual discussion session. You can post discussion prompts to social media to engage your wider community.
- Create a If you loved this series, try this book display, linking titles from our TV Series in September collection to related fiction and non-fiction titles. For example: pair a period drama series with historical fiction set in the same era.
- Have your library staff recommend their favorite series from the collection. Encourage staff to write short (3–4 sentences) personal recommendations for a series they have watched. Display these on a Staff Picks board, on your social media accounts, or in your newsletter.
