Book club discussion guide

1. Reinvention is a prevalent theme throughout the novel. Where, to you, did this come through most strongly, particularly for Charlie James?
2. What do you feel are some of the most intrinsic traits to Charlie James's character that make her different from your regular protagonist?
3. Which scene has stuck with you most following reading the novel?
4. What preconceived notions of pre-war Paris, if any, did you have going into this read? What about the setting and period shocked or intrigued you most?
5. Who would you cast in the main parts for the movie adaptation of The Paris Mystery?
6. If you could sum up The Paris Mystery in three words, what would they be?
7. What upcoming titles are you looking forward to reading next?
