Jake (Brad Rowe of SHELTER, NATIONAL TREASURE: BOOK OF SECRETS) is a single dad of two tomboys who owns a local winery. When Susan's dog Rusty (voiced by Jay Mohr of JERRY MAGUIRE, GARY UNMARRIED) falls for Jake's poodle, these canine matchmakers help their owners fall in love too. Now with a Christmas Day wedding to plan—and major complications threatening to unravel it all—can two mismatched broods find a way to make one happy family? Co-starring Tom Arnold (TV's ROSEANNE, TRUE LIES) and Catherine Hicks (TV's 7th HEAVEN).

=520 \\$alt is the summer of 1869, and trains, crews, and family are traveling together, riding America's brand-new transcontinental railroad. These pages come alive with the details of the trip and the sounds, speed, and strength of the mighty locomotives; the work that keeps them moving; and the thrill of travel from plains to mountain to ocean. Come hear the hiss of the steam, feel the heat of the engine, watch the landscape race by. Come ride the rails, come cross the young country!

=520 \\\$On the eve of World War II, African American boxer Joe Louis fought German Max Schmeling in a bout that had more at stake than just the world heavyweight title; for much of America their fight came to represent America's war with Germany. This elegant and powerful picture book biography centers around the historic fight in which Black and White America were able to put aside prejudice and come together to celebrate our nation's ideals.

=520 \\$aOne night in 1861, three escaped slaves made their way from the Confederate line to a Union-held fort. The runaways were declared "contraband of war" and granted protection. As word spread, thousands of runaway slaves poured into the fort, seeking their freedom. These "contrabands" made a home for themselves, building the first African American community in the country. In 1863, they bore witness to one of the first readings of the Emancipation Proclamation in the South - beneath the sheltering branches of the tree now known as Emancipation Oak.
