Libby: Digital Content for Your Entire Campus

Give students and faculty access to ebooks, audiobooks, and magazines through one easy-to-use platform available 24/7, on or off campus.

Help Students Access More of What They Need

Reduce Barriers to Course Materials

Libraries can offer Perlego through Libby, providing access to more than a million academic and professional titles through the Libby experience students already know.

Increase Discovery of Digital Resources

Integrate OverDrive content with EBSCO Discovery Service and EBSCO Knowledge Base workflows so students can discover ebooks and audiobooks alongside other library resources.

Build the Right Collection for Your Campus

Select from multiple lending models that help academic libraries balance demand, budgets, and long-term collection goals.

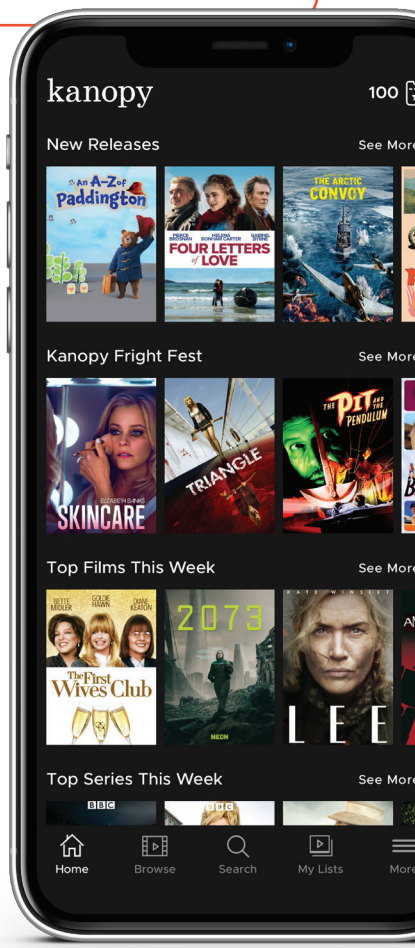

Lending Model	Best For	Recommended Academic Uses
OverDrive Max (Up to 100 simultaneous borrowers)	High-demand content	Assigned course materials, First-Year Experience programs, and department-wide reading programs
One Copy/One User (One borrower at a time)	Long-term collections	Core texts, curriculum materials, or high-demand titles you'll need year after year
Subscription (Unlimited campus-wide access)	Broad access	Professional development, leisure reading, wellness initiatives
Cost Per Circ (Pay only when borrowed)	Emerging demand	Pilot collections and niche subject areas

Make Budget Decisions with Confidence

Compare lending models and pricing options in Marketplace, OverDrive's purchasing portal, to align spending with campus priorities and make informed collection decisions.

Kanopy: Support Teaching, Research, and Student Engagement

Meet growing demand for streaming video with documentaries, feature films, instructional, and curricular content that supports teaching, research, student engagement, and lifelong learning.

Improve Access for Every Learner

Kanopy supports screen readers, keyboard navigation, and accessibility features designed to align with WCAG 2.1 AA guidelines.

Students can easily identify content with closed captions, audio descriptions, and subtitles on the title details page.

Support Student Research and Coursework

Generate citations in APA, MLA, and Chicago formats, making it easier for students to incorporate streaming media into assignments and research projects.

Extend Learning Beyond the Classroom

Students can watch from anywhere, continue learning between semesters, and access content whenever the physical library is closed or operating on limited hours.
